

Qtango has been performing traditional tango music of the early "Golden Age" of the great Argentine tango orchestras throughout the Southwest since 2009, with multiple tours every year covering over 33 states and many cities in Canada. Whether touring as a quartet or performing gala events with a 14 piece orchestra, every performance is sophisticated, engaging, nostalgic, moving and always performed for the benefit of social dancers in love with golden age tango.